

Planning for a no-deal Brexit

Scotland's enterprise and skills agencies are urging all businesses in Scotland to continue to actively prepare for a no-deal Brexit on 31 October 2019. Act now to ensure you have the right contingency plans in place, deal or no deal, to protect your business, supply chain and customers.

Follow these steps to build business resilience

1

STEP 1 - IDENTIFY THE ISSUES

Unsure how a no-deal Brexit will impact your business?

Use our free self-assessment tool. It will help you identify the areas to consider to prepare for Brexit. 7 steps and 7 minutes is all it takes.

Get started

2

STEP 2 - ESSENTIAL ACTIONS

No time to spare?

Despite ongoing uncertainty, there are quick essential actions that your business should be taking now to ensure you're in the strongest position possible to adapt quickly and thrive.

Brexit checklist

3

STEP 3 - GET SUPPORT

Need some help?

Our Brexit Support Grant will provide up to £4,000 to help you manage a wide range of Brexit impacts.

Find out if you're eligible, what the grant can be used for, and how to apply.

Get funding and advice

<https://www.prepareforbrexit.scot/>

PrepareforBrexit.scot

Self-assessment tool provides practical recommendations for action for businesses

Online articles and links to EU, UK and Scottish resources

Brexit Support Grant

Up to £4,000 to help SMEs manage Brexit impacts

Supply Chain & Sourcing Research Service

Support to identify alternative suppliers

Expert advice from SE, SDI, HIE, SDS & BG

Events across Scotland, delivered by a range of partners

1. Plan ahead for Brexit

Our exit from the EU is imminent and as a result there will be changes to how you do business in Europe. Preparing for these changes is about developing a flexible planning approach so that you can adapt and be resilient, whether or not a withdrawal deal is agreed.

Required field *

Have you appointed a member of your team to oversee your response to Brexit? *

Yes No N/A

Thank you, this will be considered for your recommendations.

Have you already developed a plan to help your business operate effectively after Brexit? *

Yes No N/A

Thank you, this will be considered for your recommendations.

Have you assessed the implications of Brexit for your current business model? *

Yes No N/A

Thank you, this will be considered for your recommendations.

Will Brexit present new possibilities for your business? *

Yes No N/A

Thank you, this will be considered for your recommendations.

Next >

1. Plan ahead
2. Develop my teams
3. Growing my business overseas
4. Develop my supply chain
5. New products and services
6. Accessing investment and funding
7. Financial management, legal and regulatory compliance

Case Studies

Colin Macdonald, commercial director of Rivet Games is using the Brexit Support Grant to get consultancy support his company needs

"With uncertainty around Brexit, we are keen to investigate and establish new business partners and models in order to diversify our risks."

Read full success story >

James Bream, general manager of Katoni Engineering, is using the Brexit Support Grant to train staff and reduce risk

"We'll be investing in staff training, consultancy and legal support as well as visiting suppliers and clients critical to our growth. These trips will allow us to listen to views and plan more robustly."

Read full success story >

- Scoping new market opportunities
 - Financial consultancy fees
 - Development of a direct sales platform
 - Reducing currency exchange risk
-
- Reducing risk for Katoni
 - Securing customer relationships and potentially revenue
 - Maintaining and understanding supply chain issues and financial risk

The 12 key business readiness actions to Prepare for Brexit

